"J. C. B." ou Are Wanted to Answer for You Dead Dog's Misdeeds.

Monday forendon a dirty white dog resmebling the spitz breed, but said to be somewhat larger, is reported to have run amuck through the village of Eagleville and also Mansfield Depot, chasing dogs, hens, turkeys and sheep, biting them procmiscuously. It finally forced an entrance into a house at Mansfield Depot and nipped a woman by the feet. The dog took refuge under a bed, but was finally driven out of the house and shot by Irving Botham's father.

Herbert O. Huntington. Mansfield dog warden, living in the Wormwood Hill section of the town, said Thurs-day afternoon that he was investigat-ing the case. He said that there were no identification marks on the dog, as he was without a tag and that the only clue was the inscription on the col-

CIVIC ORGANIZATION.

seems Assured, Because of Earnest ness of Members of Sub-Commit-

Some twenty or more ladies who are interested in the proposed plan to form a civic organization met in the rooms of the board of trade Wednesday evening and discussed the project informally. Rev. W. S. Beard, who is the father of the original plan, presided, outlined the movement briefly, and told of the material good that was bound to accrue from the organization of forces.

The chairmen of several of the subcommittees were present, as well as representatives on all committees, and Rev. Mr. Beard called upon each man and woman for his or her ideas.
Judge W. A. Arnold, chairman of the mass meeting committee, said that good speakers could be secured at but a nominal figure and that he had but a nominal figure and that he had but Wednesday talked with one or two able men in Hartford who would be willing to come here and speak at what might be termed a revival meeting. Henry T. Burr, chairman of the com-initiee on permanent organization spoke favorably of the movement and said that the committee would get together again soon and be able to report more tangible at the next meetof the civic plan committee, spoke en-couragingly and displayed a willing-ness to do what was within their prov-ince. J. O. Sullivan said that he be-lieved the movement could be carried through successfully. He agred with Rev. Mr. Beard in that it would be a good thing to get every organization in the city interested to that extent that each and every one would be represented in the new organization.

James P. Butts, John E. Brick, Dr.

H. E. F. Tiesing, William E. Haskins and others spoke in favor the move-

It is proposed to have a general mass meeting some time next month, and between now and then it is hoped that It is the wish of all present Wednes-day night that the chairmen of the various committees call the members to-gether as soon as possible and get right to work along their respective lines. The meeting was adjourned un-til next Wednesday night at 7 o'clock.

FACE TWISTED. nes Dwyer, Boarding Fast Freigh

Gets His Beauty Spoiled. James Dwyer, a transient person about 49 years of age, was up bright and early Thursday morning tooking for a doctor. He needed one; any man is apt to after he gets a siap in the face from a fast moving freight train. That's what happened to Dwy-er. He looks it. His moustache has the appearance of growing under his ear and his cheek is puffed and purpled to a surprising degree.

Mr. Dwyer told Dr. E. F. Perry that he (not the doctor) tried to board a fast freight near the long bridge as the train was pulling out of Putnam Wednesday night. He says he slipped and hit his face against a car. He rembers rolling down the steep embankment, but nothing more until he came to early Thursday morning, with his face feeling like the combined evils of seven generations. The mild temperature saved Dwyer from being frosen to death. Dr. Perry sent Dwyer to

Not Horseless Yet.

Something has been said at one time and another, half in jest and half in earnest, about the coming of the horseless age, when the self-propelled vehicle will have done away with the horse and mule altogether, incidentally doing away at the same time with the house fly. The automobile has made a wonderful development in the past ten years, but it has not displaced the horse, and indications are that it will not do so for some time to come. The horse and the mule breeders are reported as looking forward to an unprecedented year in their business. According to an estimate based on the amount of business done up to the pres-
